

BIO: B.Ø.G.

Breath Of Grey stylized as Breath Øf Grey (B.Ø.G.) is a young American Alternative-Rock Band from Los Angeles, with influences from Bands such as Pendulum, Celldweller, Linkin Park, and later also The Prodigy, Aphex Twin, and The Chemical Brothers. Breath Øf Grey consists of American-German Producer/Songwriter DICE (vocals, guitar) and Peruvian Producer/Songwriter XERO (guitar, bass).

Dice and Xero met in High School where they had several classes together. Dice and fellow Student Max Galdamez formed the Band “Fatal Beauty” of which Xero also became a member along with another Student. The Band soon broke up, and Dice and Max formed a new Band “9 Door Empire” of which Xero later also became a part of, but this Band was short lived as well. A few years after High School in June 2012 Dice and Xero decided to start a new project of their own and that’s how B.Ø.G. was born. Through their collaboration many Songs have already been written, and they each took time out to learn the Art of production while working on finding their own original style and sound for B. Ø.G.

In January of 2013 B.Ø.G. landed a contract with the Los Angeles based Indie Label King Edward Music. The Song "Instinct" is the first fruit of the Band’s hard labor. Instinct is the debut Single from the upcoming EP to be released on November 5, 2013. Currently B.Ø.G. are working on the completion of an Album.

B.Ø.G. are very excited about their upcoming releases, and are eagerly looking forward to regional and national Tours in the USA, Europe, Asia, and many other countries.
